In Memory of Carol Brown (Bluebeard)

Carol's love of Kerry Blue Terriers started in winter 1961 at The Associated Terrier Club's dog show. She attended this show with her husband Larry, hoping to narrow down the breed they would choose in the future. As they walked through the grooming area, Carol felt a gentle tap on her shoulder. When she turned around, a Kerry's tongue washed her face. That was the beginning of Bluebeard Kerries.

This love of Kerries continued for 63 years, with Carol breeding and showing our own dogs, while also raising two sons, running our household, working in computer programming, and managing our family's transition from a New York apartment to a farm in Bucks County PA.

It was truly a labor of love with much help from many good friends, including Patrick Corliss, Roy Holloway, George Rodda, Omalou McBride, Mel & Bea Schlesinger, Ray & Lou Perry, and Ron & Carol Ramsey.

Every Kerry was a joy to Carol, as they were part of the family. The extra special accomplishment of the first ever Grand Champion Kerry Blue Terrier (GCH Bluebeard's Suddenly Bridey, pictured here with Carol) made it more complete.

Carol Brown was a fierce competitor and a true friend. We have lost a truly special ambassador of our breed and will never forget her.
